Chapter 1 by Rix Quill

Maisie smashed a kitchen window with a football.

Chapter 2 by AneteTheT-rex

it was her neighbors kitchen window. Her neighbor was a mean old man who was visiting his daughter and would not be back for three more days.

Chapter 3 by Gabriel Duke

When the old man got back he was furious and called the police. The police found out it was Maisie and sent her to.... Mount Vesuvius. A volcano

Chapter 4 by Rix Quill

But her old man neighbour, Sam Doubledecker, followed Maisie to Vesuvius taking with him his dog Westly.

On finding Maisie at the burning edge of the mountainous volcano, Doubledecker intended to question the girl about his daughter's whereabouts. "Where is she?" he shouted.

Maisie was frightened of the old goat and she turned and ran.

The old man pointed at Maisie and shouted, "Westly, go catch girl," and the poodle bounded over the smoldering rocks, yelping with pain from the heat. Soon, the pooch closed in on the running girl whose shoes were smoking, as were the dog's paws. Maisie heard the cries of the hound. She stopped and reached into a pocket for a tennis ball. This she tossed into the sizzling jaws of hell along with the words, "Go fetch, boy."

Doubledecker screamed when he saw his beloved Westly burst into flames as he was barbecued by the devil.
